A WORD FROM OUR CHAIRMAN

ANGIE NIXON

Why do what we do... ... that's a great question.

I don't remember the exact moment when I first got involved with our wonderful little community theatre - but I do know that it continues to both challenge and reward me.

I'm delighted and inspired by all of the individuals that come together, giving their time to ensure the smooth (and sometimes not so smooth) running of this theatre. Their passion and commitment is nothing short of amazing.

Our in-house productions reveal emerging talent that just makes me think 'wow!' It is through performances, projects, engagement, activities and learning programmes that we are able to enrich the lives of people in our community.

We are fortunate to have this gem of a theatre in our town and so ensuring its survival is why myself and other dedicated volunteers do what they do.

I look to the future with positivity, knowing that together our board, members, volunteers, friends and funders, all share a passion to ensure this fabulous little theatre not only survives - but thrives!

If you are interested in supporting our wonderful charity - then get in touch via our website.

www.anglestheatre.co.uk

Volunteering is really selfish and here's why you should do it ...

Sound outrageous? Well not really - if you want to do something for yourself, then consider the fulfilment of serving selflessly, the joy of giving back to society, and the feeling of being useful, you can be assured that volunteering creates a feel good factor that's hard to match.

Volunteering at the Angles Theatre is a great way to support your local theatre, be part of brilliant productions and make new friends! You'll see the inner workings of the theatre, become part of our passionate team and have the opportunity to get invited to all sorts of events. You'll learn new skills, have the opportunity to take part in various training sessions, and help drive the Theatre's success.

If you're interested in joining the team - or just want to find out more:

Join us at the theatre for our Volunteer Evening on Thursday 25th July.

We will be recruiting volunteers for all areas of the theatre.

These include:

OR scan this link to complete the following form and our Volunteer Manager will be in touch soon.

Did you know... we are a charity and that our venue is almost entirely volunteer run. This amazing community theatre relies on your support to survive!

From the box office and bar, to backstage, to administration and day-to-day accounting - our venue is almost entirely volunteer run.

The Angles Theatre is a small registered cultural charity (no.1173321). Our theatre brings people together to witness events that can be beautiful, fun, moving, or thought-provoking. At a time when most of our communication takes place in front of a screen, theatre provides intrinsic value to society to open our minds, share experiences, reduce social exclusion and isolation, to be happy and healthy.

Situated in Fenland, the lowest 20% of local authority for arts engagement levels, we continue to encourage arts activities.

80%

80% of the events we put on annually are aimed at and accessible for children. In 2019 alone, we had 24,975 engagements from young people.

we are a cultural hub for our community

A grade II listed, 89 seat theatre & arts venue in Wisbech, with 2 studios and bar space

We are hugely grateful to all of those who currently support us but if our theatre is to survive, we must increase revenue and donations. Below are some of the additional ways you can help us achieve this:

Become a member!

Three levels of membership to support the theatre. Priority booking on shows and workshops. Voting rights - have your say at the Angles Theatre's AGM. Invitations to exclusive VIP events, behind the scenes and early access to information on upcoming shows.
Or why not gift a membership!

Support with every ticket!

We have introduced a new way of buying your tickets, based on how much you want to support your theatre. Following seat selection, choose to be a 'superstar today', or buy a standard ticket - the price you pay is completely up to you!

Raise funds whilst you shop!

Sign up (for free), and whenever you shop through Easyfundraising partners (Argos, Currys, Just Eat, etc), they will automatically make a donation to us at no cost to you.
It's that easy!

Need help funding your classes? You can apply for a bursary to cover at least 40% of the term or workshop fees.

Emlyn Moment made a massive impact to the life and culture of the Angles Theatre. His ethos and commitment to its youth members – particularly Ratzcool, and the greater communities it served, are sadly missed.

The Moment family felt it fitting to honour his contributions through a memorial bursary fund, and dedicated monies to establish such a fund. It is a means-tested bursary, to see if you meet the criteria visit:
